MY JOURNEY

Resume.

From capital markets law to digital education and edtech — here's where I've worked and what I've learned.

Summary

I'm a digital-education specialist and edtech Partner, building on four years of experience in capital markets law. As an MSc Digital Education student at Xi'an Jiaotong-Liverpool University, I explore how technology and innovative pedagogy can improve learning outcomes and access. I bring together hands-on K–12 teaching and curriculum design with rigorous legal and analytical training.
